PRESS RELEASE: TravelOperations consolidates position as #1 Microsoft partner to the travel sector with acquisition of Scandisys AB.

We are delighted to announce that, as of 6 April 2021, Scandisys is part of TravelOperations. Scandisys is one of the leading travel agency software providers in Sweden. This acquisition means TravelOperations has further consolidated its position as the number one Microsoft partner delivering mid and back office software solutions to the travel sector.

As part of TravelOperations, Scandisys' customers will enjoy all the benefits of our state-of-the-art technology and our commitment to excellent customer service.

We have a lot in common and a passion for travel

This move marks the start of an exciting adventure for both companies. We have a lot in common and share similar values. In particular, we both have customer-centric mindsets and a focus on delivering the most effective all-in-one solution tailored to the specific needs of our industry. Above all, we both share the same passion: Travel!

"Scandisys is a highly regarded and trusted partner to many great travel companies," says Michael Holst Andersen, General Manager of TravelOperations. "They have a vast amount of travel industry experience and an in-depth knowledge of their customers' needs. Both TravelOperations and Scandisys deliver solutions to the travel industry supported by the power of Microsoft and this acquisition will consolidate and strengthen our customer offer and enable us to manage operations on a bigger scale."

Giving travel agents a clear route out of the Covid-19 crisis

Although travel has been severely affected by Covid-19, we are confident and optimistic that this acquisition means we can help the industry build back better from the pandemic. "As part of TravelOperations we are in a stronger position to provide the latest technology solutions for our customers and continuously support them in the future," says Markus Zetterberg, CEO Scandisys. "We will be integrating our teams of travel experts and Microsoft Dynamics experts to offer all travel companies the benefit of our combined knowledge and expertise as they navigate their way out of the pandemic to a brighter future. All-in-all it is a great match that makes both companies more solid a ready for a larger vision."

The best of both worlds for a global customer base

With this acquisition, TravelOperations and Scandisys are combining technology expertise, travel industry knowledge, and a global customer base. This builds on our capacity to deliver cutting-edge mid and back office systems combined with a full CRM solution. We have global ambitions and our all-in-one, future-proof platform is perfect for all travel agencies, regardless of size or location.
